Net Entertainment signs Global Game Supply Framework Agreement with GTECH

September 24, 2013 – Net Entertainment has signed a Global Game Supply Framework Agreement with SPIELO International UK Limited, which is a subsidiary of GTECH S.p.A. (GTECH), a leading commercial operator and provider of technology and content to regulated gaming markets worldwide.

Under the terms of the agreement, Net Entertainment will have the opportunity to supply World Lottery Association (WLA) customers with its online casino games exclusively through GTECH. Each opportunity will be explored on a tender by tender basis.

“GTECH is a global leader within the regulated WLA operator segment, and we are very excited about this partnership which will allow Net Entertainment the opportunity to efficiently reach a new market segment that nicely fits into our growth strategy. The WLA lottery market requires trustworthy, reliable and stable partners, and GTECH’s selection of Net Entertainment is yet more proof of the trust and confidence that exists in our delivery capabilities,” comments Björn Krantz, Chief of GMO and MD Net Entertainment Malta Ltd.

“Net Entertainment offers a vast library of top-performing online casino games, and in combination with their technology and operational leadership, we are confident that our selection of Net Entertainment will further strengthen GTECH’s position as the supplier of choice for new and existing WLA customers,” said Renato Ascoli, General Manager, GTECH S.p.A. and President, GTECH Products and Services.

“This agreement with Net Entertainment will enable GTECH to offer our lottery customers a high volume of some of the best online casino games in the market with minimal turnaround time, supporting our customers’ mission of generating revenue for the populations they serve by creating and enhancing sustainable and entertaining interactive gaming programs.”
