PRESS RELEASE

Net Entertainment signs two more agreements for Italy

Net Entertainment is pleased to announce that it has signed agreements with G.Matica and Interwetten for the supply of its award winning casino software in Italy. This further solidifies Net Entertainments position as key online casino supplier to the Italian market.

G.Matica

G.Matica was established in 2004 and is already licensed by the Italian gaming authority AAMS to offer online sports betting, poker and casino in Italy. G.Matica is one of the most appreciated land based operators with a significant online presence. G.Matica has signed a multi-year agreement with Net Entertainment as their online casino games supplier.

Interwetten

Interwetten was founded in 1990 in Vienna and is a well-recognized European sports betting operator focusing primarily on Central Europe. Interwetten has been a customer of Net Entertainment since April 2010 and is now extending its partnership with Net Entertainment for its Italian online operations.

“The investments made to establish Net Entertainment as a premium supplier of online casino also on regulated markets has clearly been successful. Our aim to provide the ultimate gaming experience through research and technology leadership stays firm and will benefit the operators that have chosen us as their casino supplier.” comments Johan Öhman, Net Entertainments CEO.
