

NetEnt signs key patent cross-license agreement with IGT

IGT, holder of the largest portfolio of slot game feature patents in North America, reaches IP patent cross-license agreement for the North American market with NetEnt, leading provider of online gaming solutions.

The agreement enables NetEnt to offer games in North America that include any of the patented game features contained in the IGT portfolio. Signing this IP patent cross-license agreement is a big step forward in the process of an entry for NetEnt into the North American market.

Björn Krantz, Managing Director NetEnt Americas LLC, comments, “IGT is a key partner for NetEnt in its expansion into North America, and we are really pleased that we’ll have access to all of IGT’s game feature patents for our North American multichannel games offering.”

Matteo Monteverdi, Senior Vice President Global Product Marketing, Interactive, IGT comments, “We are very pleased to reach an agreement to provide NetEnt with IGT’s best-in-class portfolio of game feature patents. Working in partnership with NetEnt enables us to further validate our significant IP portfolio.”
