SNAI and Sisal launch NetEnt's online casino games

In March last year NetEnt, a leading provider of online gaming solutions, signed an agreement with platform supplier GameAccount Network, which enables NetEnt to offer its PC and mobile content to several well-known established gaming operators in Italy. NetEnt today announces that a selection of its games is now live and available with operators SNAI and Sisal in Italy.

Comments by Enrico Bradamante, Chief of European Market Operations and MD of NetEnt Malta Ltd:

“NetEnt has been present in the Italian market since regulation began and Italy continues to be a key market for us. I am very pleased that SNAI and Sisal are now live with a wide selection of our world-class thrilling games, and I am certain that with our games they can offer the ultimate player experience to their Italian players.”
