PRESS RELEASE

Net Entertainment confirms signing with Interwetten

At the end of April Net Entertainment announced signing a license agreement with a major European gaming operator. Net Entertainment is delighted to now reveal that the operator in question is Interwetten. Interwetten is one of Europe's larger sports books having over one million customers in more than 100 countries. Through tight cooperation between the companies, Interwetten was able to integrate the award winning CasinoModule in record time, and the full suite of Net Entertainments casino games are now available to Interwettens player base.
