

PRESS RELEASE

June 7th 2017

NetEnt games live in Serbia

NetEnt, leading provider of digital casino solutions, continues to grow on regulated markets globally and has now launched its award-winning games on the regulated market in Serbia.

Following successful technical integrations, NetEnt has now launched a selection of its games with Mozzart, the leading gaming operator in Serbia.

"We keep delivering on our global growth strategy by strengthening our position on regulated markets and we are very pleased that our popular games are now also available for players in Serbia", says Enrico Bradamante, Chief of European Market Operations and MD of NetEnt Malta Ltd.

NetEnt is the online casino supplier with the largest presence on regulated markets globally in terms of number of licenses and certifications.
