NetEnt continues expansion in Pennsylvania through Parx deal

NetEnt has entered into an agreement with Parx Casino ahead of the opening of the regulated online casino market in Pennsylvania (USA).

NetEnt continues to ramp up its preparations to enter the regulated market for online casino in Pennsylvania. Once the market opens, a broad range of NetEnt's portfolio of slot games and table games will be available at Parx Online, operated by Greenwood Gaming and Entertainment Inc, who also operate Parx Casino, a horse racing venue and the largest casino gaming complex in Pennsylvania.

NetEnt games will be delivered via the GAN platform, which also enables free spins and the free spin widget.

"Parx is a household brand in the gambling community in Pennsylvania. I am very excited that we have secured this important agreement ahead of market opening. I am certain that Parx player's will enjoy our games and unique features and that our tools will help Parx grow their business within online casino", says Erik Nyman, Managing Director NetEnt Americas LLC.

The agreement with Parx Online in Pennsylvania is the third agreement struck for NetEnt ahead of the market opening.

"We are looking forward to expanding the Parx Casino offerings into the online world. As part of this, we're excited to be able to offer NetEnt's outstanding suite of game content as part of our online casino launch in Pennsylvania", says Matthew Cullen, SVP iGaming & Sports, Parx Casino.
