NetEnt secures rights to Conan for new character-driven branded slots game

NetEnt will introduce an exciting new character to its slots line-up after securing the rights to create its own adaptation of Conan.

The mythical hero, who has been the subject of numerous films, books, comics and video and board games, will be given a makeover by NetEnt to fit in with its much-loved, inimitable style.

The sword and sorcery-themed game will boost NetEnt's renowned portfolio of player-favourite branded titles that encompasses a range of genres, including world-famous film and television brands.

NetEnt's diverse selection of exclusive licensed content includes Narcos™, Vikings™, Jumanji™, Planet of the Apes™, Guns n' Roses™, Motörhead™ and Jimi Hendrix™.

"Conan is a character and a brand with a fantastic history and legions of fans all over the world. We are honoured to be creating our own adaptation of Conan and can't wait to give him the hallmark NetEnt treatment." said Bryan Upton, Director of Games at NetEnt.
